

Mission Statement - October 2023

Wawenock Golf Club endeavors to make golf accessible to all, promoting its physical, mental, and spiritual benefits.

Whereas Wawenock Country Club (A.K.A. Wawenock Golf Club) was incorporated in 1980 as a 501(c)(3) charitable corporation holding title to the property and having a Board of Trustees charged with administering and safeguarding the assets of the Corporation, it is appropriate at this time to revisit and iterate the mission of Wawenock Golf Club.

The Board of Trustees shall seek to fulfill the object of educating the general public toward the realization of the multiple benefits (physical, mental, and spiritual) inherent in the pursuit of the outdoor sport of Golf. The facilities shall be operated on an absolutely non-discriminatory basis open to all who wish the benefits of and training in Golf. All fees shall be as reasonable as is economically feasible while providing for the continuing future operations and solvency of the Corporation. In this spirit, the customers (playing members) of the Corporation may be given the opportunity to occasionally volunteer for projects that may reduce maintenance and improvement costs.

Free golf clinics on the rules and techniques of Golf shall be offered to all ages at various times throughout the golf season. The facility shall be offered for free use by the local schools and their golf teams for practice and competitions.

The Board of Trustees shall endeavor in all its actions to convey to the greater Maine community its intent to promote the aforementioned benefits of Golf by whatever means are deemed feasible and appropriate.

Wawenock Golf Club & Board of Trustees Values

Teamwork – We work together in the best interests the club, with integrity and professionalism in order to achieve our goals. We encourage and foster a volunteer ethic within our club.

Continuous Improvement – We focus on continuous improvement of the golf, clubhouse services, and social activities consulting regularly with our members to seek out new ideas.

Inclusiveness – We promote the game of golf and provide an affordable facility with a welcoming atmosphere to all who wish to participate.

Honesty: We will be honest in word and deed, and act in the best interest of our members, staff, our conscience, and within the law.

Respect: We will be conscious of the impact that our words, decisions, and actions have on our members, visitors, and staff, and we will promote dignity, consideration, and fairness throughout the Club.

Stewardship: We will manage our financial, facilities, human, and natural resources responsibly, and be legally and ethically compliant in all of our business processes. We honor and protect the Club, its grounds, its distinguished history, and the Club's legacy.

Conviviality: We aim to make the Club, for members and visitors, a place of friendship, fun, and sociability.
